SUMMER SCHOOL 2022

TRANSMEDIA NARRATIVES
AND SOCIAL ACTIVISM

MIGR!MAGE

IMAGES OF MIGRATION OF THE SOUTHERN BORDER

The Mediterranean Borders and Communication Studies Summer School combines innovative tools connecting three areas of the Southern Border. Topics such as transmedia narratives and social activism, digital and citizen journalism, collective mapping, as well as audiovisual creation as tools for active border research will be discussed.

These schools are free of charge and the only requirement is a degree or bachelor's degree.

The one led by the University of Granada offers the itinerary of Transmedial Narratives and Social Activism.

Students can enrol in one or more of these seminars:

Academic seminars

They offer theoretical frameworks and analysis of tools within the contents of the School. They will have a total duration of 25 hours and will be delivered over 5 five weeks, between 25 May and 24 June 2022. They will be online and their contents will be taught in Spanish and English (depending on the module).

5 ECTS will be recognised.

Seminars on collaborative creation and citizen participation

They will be face-to-face in Ceuta, will last 25 hours and will take place between 27 and 30 June 2022. They will be offered in Spanish, but English translation will be provided to encourage the presence of international students. 5 ECTS will be recognised.

Seminars of other project universities

The University of Salento (Lecce, Italy) and the University of the Aegean (Lesvos, Greece) offer seminars, online and in english.

A certificate of attendance will be provided.
